Short Course Information

Geochemical Society and Mineralogical Society of America Short Course

Molecular Modeling Theory and Applications in the Geosciences

Roanoke, Virginia, U.S.A—May 19-20, 2001

Registration fee includes GS-MSA short course session costs, welcoming reception, breakfasts, lunches, break refreshments, and Reviews in Mineralogy and Geochemistry volume. All short course sessions will be at the Hotel Roanoke and Conference Center. There will be an informal welcoming reception at 7:00 PM Friday evening May 18, 2001 at the same location. Complimentary bus service to the Hotel Roanoke is available from the Roanoke airport. Registration fee does NOT include room costs, other meals, or transportation costs to or from the main Goldschmidt Conference at The Homestead. Short course attendees planning on attending the Goldschmidt Conference and needing bus transportation should make bus reservations using the conference web page (<http://www.lpi.usra.edu/meetings/gold2001/>). These buses will be picking up short course attendees at the Hotel Roanoke after lunch on Sunday May 20. A block of discounted rooms at the Hotel Roanoke are available for both Friday and Saturday nights. Rates are $92.00 plus taxes per night (single occupancy), $102.00 plus taxes per night (double occupancy), plus $10.00 per night (plus taxes) for each additional person. Attendees must make their own room reservations by calling the hotel at 540-985-5900 and asking for the Molecular Modeling Short Course room block, or by making a reservation via the hotel web site (<http://www.hotelroanoke.com/>). Reservations must be made by Friday April 20, 2001 in order to guarantee the discounted room rates.

You can contact the co-organizer Randall Cygan (rtcyan@sandia.gov, 505-844-7216) or the Geochemical Society business manager Seth Davis (gsoffice@gs.wustl.edu, 314-935-4131) if you have any questions concerning registration or the short course.
